

Harding University
Scholar Works at Harding

John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence

John Allen Chalk

February 2019

From: Sherlie Rowe

Sherlie Rowe

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal>

Recommended Citation

Rowe, S. (2019). From: Sherlie Rowe. Retrieved from <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal/3512>

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the John Allen Chalk at Scholar Works at Harding. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Scholar Works at Harding. For more information, please contact scholarworks@harding.edu.

Dear Brother In Christ

We appreciate so much your coming here to help us in our work for Christ, we are grateful for your ability to let God work through you.

I am praying for you. I know that your responsibility is great, and your pulpit warm and uncomfortable, but God's compelling love shines through and blesses us all. Though the aisles are not crowded at the invitation hymn, surely you know that many hearts are touched inwardly and respond in attitude and concern for others.

Thank you for your prayer, time, energy, and preparation for our souls good. Would you also thank your family for sharing you?

May God grant you a long life of great influence for Jesus' sake. May you find greater joy each year in His service. May your talents be increased, and your sins be covered. May your family be safe with God while you are away.

Remember, God loves you,

In Christian love,
Sherlie Rowe